Corinthian Sports Club, Gay Dawn Farm

Valley Road, Fawkham

DA3 8LY

Corinthian Football Club is the trading name of Corinthian Sports Club Limited.

Company Registration Number: 513287

THE HISTORY OF THE CLUB

Corinthian FC was founded in 1972 by Mr RJ Billings (snr) to provide football in a safe environment, whilst teaching the players the principles that he believed to be important in sport. The motto was simply “pro omnium beneficio” - for the benefit of all, but on the pitch the principles were simple; “Hard, but fair”. Losing wasn’t considered before the game, but if the result went against us then the players were taught to take it graciously.

For the first ten years of the club’s existence we were pleased to welcome such teams as Tottenham, Charlton and Norwich amongst other league teams as well as county and district representative sides as our opposition. On top of these games there were many regular visitors to Gay Dawn Farm from local clubs making up a fixture list of over 60 games per season.

During the 1980s with the arrival of an experienced football manager, Mr Tony Sitford, we progressed from youth football into men’s football playing in the old Southern League. This level of football by a totally amateur club made us unique, but caused problems in the long run in attracting new players. Into the 1990’s we dropped back down to the Kent League and enjoyed many a season in this set up.

Early into the new century we reviewed the whole structure of our football club and decided that we had lost our roots in youth football and this was having a detrimental effect on our senior side. So, we decided to withdraw temporarily from senior football, whilst we rebuilt the lower levels of the club. In 2008 we had managed to create a club running 5 sides, from 13 years old through to 18 years old and it became obvious that we needed to consider the next step in our restructuring. For two seasons we had a liaison with Welling United, integrating a senior side within Welling United and developed a reserve side initially playing in Kent Division 2 (season 2008/09) and then moving on (2009/10) into the Suburban League South Division. This partnership has now come to an end.

When the opportunity came for us to re-enter senior football as Corinthian Football Club, we did not hesitate to take it. Probably 2 years too soon, but the challenge was one we were keen to take. We introduced a second senior side playing in the Suburban League to help us progress our u18’s into men’s football.

The 2010 / 11 season saw Corinthian FC running two senior sides one in the Kent Football League Premier Division and one in the Suburban League South Division plus three youth sides – u14, u15 and u18 in the Kent Youth League. For the 2011/12 season as well as all the above, Corinthian FC had an u18 side in the Ryman Youth League. We feel that that this fills the gap from Kent Youth League to senior football, enabling us to offer a true progression for all our players. The 2012/13, 14/15, 15/16, 17/18 ,18/19 and 19/20 seasons saw the addition of u13 and u15 team playing in the Kent Youth League.

After untimely ends to the 2019/20 & 2020/21 seasons, when the boys were flying high, we are delighted to have retained the main squad, with the addition of some of last season u18’s.

Corinthian Football Club are delighted to have been promoted into the Isthmian League Division 1 South East for the 2021/22 season and are looking forward to the challenge, to visiting new grounds and making new friends.

For our 21/22 campaign we continue with sides in the Suburban League Premier Division, Isthmian u18 East Division as well as the Isthmian South East Division.

EDITOR'S COMMENTS

I am delighted to welcome Folkestone Invicta FC players, officials, supporters, and today's match officials to Gay Dawn Farm for what should be an excellent afternoon of football – in the First Round Qualifying of the Emirates FA Cup.

The Football Association Challenge Cup, more commonly known as the FA Cup, is an annual knockout football competition in men's domestic English football. First played during the 1871–72 season, it is the oldest national football competition in the world. It is organised by and named after The Football Association (The FA). Since 2015, it has been known as The Emirates FA Cup after its headline sponsor. A concurrent women's tournament is also held, the Women's FA Cup.

The competition is open to any eligible club down to Level 10 of the English football league system – all 92 professional clubs in the Premier League (level 1) and the English Football League (levels 2 to 4), and several hundred non-League teams in steps 1 to 6 of the National League System (levels 5 to 10). A record 763 clubs competed in 2011–12. The tournament consists of 12 randomly drawn rounds followed by the semi-finals and the final. Entrants are not seeded, although a system of byes based on league level ensures higher ranked teams enter in later rounds – the minimum number of games needed to win, depending on which round a team enters the competition, ranges from six to fourteen. The first six rounds are the Qualifying Competition, from which 32 teams progress to the first round of the Competition Proper, meeting the first of the 48 professional teams from Leagues One and Two. The last entrants are the Premier League and Championship clubs, into the draw for the Third Round Proper. In the modern era, only one non-League team has ever reached the quarter-finals, and teams below Level 2 have never reached the final. As a result, significant focus is given to the smaller teams who progress furthest, especially if they achieve an unlikely "giant-killing" victory.

Winners receive the FA Cup trophy, of which there have been two designs and five actual cups; the latest is a 2014 replica of the second design, introduced in 1911. Winners also qualify for the UEFA Europa League and a place in the upcoming FA Community Shield. Arsenal are the most successful club with fourteen titles and Arsène Wenger is the most successful manager in the history of the competition, having won seven finals as Arsenal's manager. Leicester City are the current holders, having beaten Chelsea 1–0 in the 2021 final.

Enjoy, the match, enjoy the rest of the season, and have a safe journey home.

MANAGERS NOTES:

Welcome all to Gay Dawn Farm for this FA Cup 1st Qualifying Round Kent derby against Folkestone Invicta. Folkestone have unsurprisingly started the season incredibly well and had it not been for a questionable referring decision last Saturday, they would be sitting at the top of the table with 12 points from 4 games. This shows just how tough today is going to be for our side, but hopefully we can put on a performance and compete with Folkestone today and hope to catch them on a rare off day.

I would like to extend my welcome to Neil Cugley, his management team, players and all that have travelled from Folkestone for today's game. Neil is a manager that has produced for a number of years, a team that challenge year in, year out at the top end of Step 3 and he is somebody that all young managers, including myself can learn from and aspire to emulate his continued successes.

The bank holiday weekend, saw us frustratingly only collect one of the possible six points on offer. I say frustrating as I just felt the players efforts and endeavour deserved more than a single point, but it was the lack of attention to detail and lack of quality at critical times that meant our unbeaten start to the season came to an end at Cray Valley.

I think when I look back at the first three games of the season, collecting four points, we probably would have taken that before the season started. I have openly said that we could have any combination of points from two up to nine points and I think that goes to show the difference between step 4 and 5. We have played three title contenders and coped well in each game, importantly we have been competitive in each game and that gives me confidence that we will be competitive all season and if we can add that little bit of quality, then I am sure we win more games than we lose this season.

The FA Cup is the greatest cup competition in the world and it is an honour to manage a side in it. Last year we equalled the clubs best ever run, reaching the 2nd Qualifying Round and today presents us with another opportunity to equal that record. We know we are massive underdogs today, but if we play to the levels we know we can get to and Folkestone do not reach their levels, then it gives us a fighting chance of causing an upset.

Enjoy the game today! Come on you Hoops!

Michael

CAPTAIN'S COLUMN

Big welcome to today's game and we hope you all enjoyed the bank holiday weekend. Our weekend was one of mixed emotions, disappointing not to have picked up more points but as a group we certainly have learned a few things over the weekend which will stand us in good stead moving forward. Today's game is a game that this squad loves, we love being the underdog and with the magic of the FA Cup you never know how results will go for certain so if we perform to levels we know we can hopefully we can give the fans a good day at The Farm!

A couple of birthdays within the team this weekend so a big happy birthday to "Luke Solomon Rondon Tanner" on his 43rd birthday and "Aiden Chunks Prall"

Position:

Goalkeeper

How long have you played for Corinthian:

This is my fifth season

Previous Clubs:

Was at Charlton as a kid but men's football, Corinthian is my only club.

Best footballing achievement:

Getting promoted last season and being involved in England camps.

Best footballer at the club:

Probably Arthur, closely followed by Oscar. The rest of us are just good at running.

Who trains the hardest:

James Trueman rarely misses a session and always gives 100%

Worst in training:

Bathy, regularly throws his toys out the pram and had a horrific cameo at right back one session

Flair player:

Andres Tobon, although Jack Billings isn't too far off

Joker:

CJ and Holland

Tough man:

Frank 'The Tank' Morgan

Best dancer:

Best is a loose term, but I reckon Dre has some rhythm.

Worst dancer:

Gladly put myself for this one

Quickest:

I think Holland takes this one

Slowest:

Billo. No questions asked!

Future manager:

Bathy and Tanner, joint managers.

Who gets fined the most:

Andres

Biggest moaner:

Billo

Most intelligent:

Jack Billings

Least intelligent:

Jack Holland

Relegation Guidelines 2021/22 – The bottom two clubs will be relegated. The two clubs finishing in 17th and 18th position will enter into a play-off with clubs finishing runners-up of the step 5 divisions. It is anticipated there may be a number of reprieves at the end of the season so this will not become fully effective until the end of season 2022/23

The Isthmian Football League strongly supports the FA statement that there should be a zero-tolerance approach against racism and all forms of discrimination. Accordingly, any form of discriminatory abuse whether it by reason of age, disability, gender reassignment, race, religion and belief, marriage and civil partnership, pregnancy and maternity, sex and sexual orientation or any other form of abuse will be reported to The Football Association for action by that Association.” (The FA 0800 085 0508 / Kick it Out 020 7253 0162).The Isthmian League and all Member Clubs in the League are committed to promoting equality by treating people fairly and with respect, by recognising that inequalities may exist, by taking steps to address them and providing access and opportunities for all members of the community

THE NON-LEAGUE PAPER

ESSENTIAL READING FOR FOLLOWERS OF THE NATIONAL GAME

Matthew Badcock

PRESSURE in football is supposedly reserved for managers, players and even referees – but there can't be anyone who has to perform when it really matters like the physio.

Most of the time we're used to seeing them dash on for minor knocks and strains. A bit of treatment, a blast of the freeze spray, a dab of the magic sponge, a squirt of the water bottle and on we go (I'm sure it's roughly that easy!).

Yet nobody is in the bar after saying, "Physio had a great game today". It's probably how they prefer it. Unseen, just going about their business quietly and efficiently.

But I'm here to argue physios – and other medical staff at games – are the most important people in a football ground. Because when something really goes wrong, they are front and centre – often with hundreds, if not thousands, of eyes staring right at them.

Anyone who has been in a ground when a bad injury occurs knows it can be quite a scary time – especially anything involving the head, neck or spine. I'll never forget hearing a striker's leg break in a challenge at the other end of a ground. Or seeing a player having a seizure on the ground.

But the medical experts can't get caught up in all that. Keeping calm, assessing the situation, they go through their processes, using all their knowledge from years of studying and observing to give the best possible care to a player.

Already this season we've seen cases of games abandoned because of really bad injuries.

Last season Darlington's Nicky Hunt suffered a head injury in a National League North game against Boston United.

Darlington therapist Danny O'Connor – who was helped by the Pilgrims' medical staff as well – spoke after about the situation that even saw Hunt stop breathing twice. The team stayed in position for hours waiting for an ambulance, keeping Hunt comfortable.

"You kind of go into robot mode when something like this happens," he told NE Sport News.

"It's a bit strange because you're just dealing with the situation and everything else becomes irrelevant.

"It's quite interesting really because when I've spoken to people afterwards the majority say they wouldn't know what to do in that situation, whereas I felt quite comfortable knowing what to do and when to do it, but that just comes down to experience."

It's a remarkable responsibility to take on – I'd wager the majority of us couldn't do a job like that.

Last month Hallam physio Shannon Brooks drew high praise for her expertise and care when assistant referee Andrew Jarvis fell in during a game. Her quick actions saved his life and has led Shannon to fundraise for defibrillators having seen the importance of one being available first-hand.

Thankfully, incidents like this tend to be few and far between. Hopefully at your game today you have no real need to notice any of the medical staff.

But let's keep showing them the appreciation they deserve.

A HISTORY OF FOLKESTONE INVICTA

Folkestone Invicta Football Club, which was formed in 1936 and played in the East Kent Amateur League, took over use of the Cheriton Road ground in early 1991 after the demise of the old Folkestone club who had enjoyed a long history in the Southern League.

Invicta achieved senior status and joined Division One of the Winstonlead Kent League, making steady progress in its first two seasons at this level under club stalwart Staniforth. The nearest the club came to another trophy during these two seasons was when they lost the 1994 Plaaya Kent Senior Trophy Final 3-1 against Alma Swanley at Gravesend & Northfleet's Stonebridge Road.

Former Folkestone, Dover Athletic, Hythe Town, Crawley Town and Sittingbourne player Tim Hulme then took over as player-manager for the 1994-95 season. Invicta at one point chased the Kent League treble that season, but ended up empty handed. The club were runners up for a second successive season in the Plaaya Kent Senior Trophy after losing a penalty shoot out in the final against Deal Town at Dover's Crabble ground following a 2-2 draw after extra time.

Invicta entered the F. A. Cup for the first time during the 1994-95 season, beating Hailsham Town and then Southern League Premier Division side Sittingbourne before going out 2-1 at home to a Worthing side which included former Tottenham striker Mark Falco.

Hopes were high for the 1995-96 season as Invicta strengthened their squad, but things turned sour during the second half of the season as Hulme left the club, with his assistant Micky Dix taking over for the remainder of the season.

Former Canterbury City boss Darren Hare was recruited for the 1996-97 season, but after a poor start he was soon replaced by one-time Folkestone Town manager Denis Hunt, assisted by veteran player Bobby Wilson.

It was during this season that a club record 2,332 saw the club play hosts to West Ham United in a benefit game following freak floods in the town. Harry Redknapp brought down a strong West Ham side that won 6-0 and included Portuguese World Cup star Paolo Futre, Julian Dicks, a young Frank Lampard and Stan Lazaridis.

It was the arrival of manager Neil Cugley from Ashford Town during the summer of 1997 which was to provide the catalyst for the return of Southern League football to the town.

Despite winning its last five matches during April, Invicta narrowly missed out on the play offs on the final day of the 2018-19 season.

Invicta were still very much in the Isthmian League Premier Division promotion race and in the semi finals of the League Cup when the 2019-20 season came to a halt due to the COVID-19 pandemic.

The start of the curtailed 2020-21 season was a strange time with COVID protocols and procedures and with elite level sport continuing behind-closed-doors, Invicta was for a short spell one of the best supported clubs in the country.
